Mr. Brady pursued a different policy with the Merchants and Mechanics Bank, with the Merchants and Mechanics Bank, and pushed discounts into Ohio where the banks had been all destroyed by loco-foco wisdom. By which means he brought the bank out of great embarassment into a healthy condition.

WHAT PRODUCED THE PANIC OF 40.

IMPORTED WHEAT FROM EUROPE.

Of course we became bankrupt, government, states, corporations and people.

Nails sold in Wheeling at $10 per keg and yet Agnew and others failed. Glass tumblers sold for $1 per dozen yet the works had to stop. Under the tariff of 42 mearly 200 per cent was put upon these articles, yet nails went down to $5, and the same tumblers to 50 cts. and these establishments prospered. Why? Without protection they had uncertain sales and heavy commissions, while with protection they were thronged with orders, had cash sales, and home competition reduced the prices to a healthy figure.

HOMELEAGUE IN WHEELING.

HOME LEAGUE IN WHEELING.

In 1837 or 38 we formed in Wheeling a "home league" and almost all our leading men belonged to it. The late Samuel Sprigg was one of the principal leaders. We resolved that we would buy nothing abroad that we could get or get made at home. The principle is a good and useful one and should be acted upon everywhere. A man who has a good farm and plenty of help in his own family to do the necessary work is a great fool if he does not sell more than he buys. A comdoes not sell more than he buys. A com-munity of healthy people should do the same thing, and the first great duty of our government, we having the biggest and best farm in the world, is to provide through legislation that our people shall

We must export 50,000,000 bushels of wheat, representing that much of our substance, to get back this $50,000,000 into our midst. We shall be fortunate if we can exit back in that way and do of we can get it back in that way, and do not have to keep the wheat among ourselves and part absolutely with that much capital.

WHAT PRODUCED THE PANIC OF 40.
David A. Wells and his school of free trade writers will tell you that it was one of those periodical collapses that overtake business: Such men do not go below the surface. Those who went through that period know as well what caused it as we all know that the sun causes the light of day. The tariff of 1823 gave prosperity to the country. Money was put into manufacturing. In Wheeling this money went into iron and glass. The tariff of 1833 reduced duties annually so as to strike 20 per cent ad valorem in 1840. In the meantime Gen'l, Jackson had destroyed the U. S. Bank, whose notes circulated even in China and were the thermometer of trade. When her notes began to come home the bask checked up the local bank circulation by frequent settlements. That check removed, the local bank is more than the settlements of the set of the set of the Paalms contained in the Scriptures in the word of God a divine war between the settlements. That check removed, the local bank began to spread themselves. Prices went up as duties went down and in 1836 we absolutely Communion.—On this subject the U. P. Church holds that communion in sealing ordinances should under ordinary circumstances be restrained to those who adhere to her creed. 3d. Secrét Societies.—It is believed that oath-bound secret orders are at variance with the word of God, detrimental to the church, inimical to the best interests of men, and therefore that Christians ought not to have fellowship with them. After the union was formed, there were 43 Presbyteries, 408 Ministers, 56 licentiates, 634 congregations, 55.547 members. The statistics of last year show 8 Synods, 57 Presbyteries, 640 ministers, 64 licentiates, 63 decompregations, 55.640 ministers, 64 licentiates, 65 theological students, 794 congregations, 38 unorganized stations, and 78,483 members. During the past year there were added to the church by profession 4,434, by certificate 3,242. There were 3,905 infants and 604 adult baptisms. Contributions to benevolent enterprises were made as follows: For Foreign Missions, $52,653; Home Missions, $25,462; Freedmen's Mission, $6,112; Church Extension, $11,532; Education, $10,982; Publication, $1,637; and for other purposes, and general contributions, not including paetor's salaries, $45,950. and general contributions, not including pastor's salaries, $45,950. For pastor's salaries there has been contributed the sum of $457,156, and for congregation expenses, $235,847, making a total of contributions during the year, of about $11 35. Average salary of pastors was $951. There were 701 Sabbath Schools, with 58,839 scholars in attendance, contributing to the funds of the church about $22,500.

These figures are copied from statistics of the church for the year 1877 and not for the year which now closes. This church has three Theological Seminaries in this country leaves. church has three Theological Seminaries in this country, located at Newburgh, New York, Allegheny City, Pa, and Xenia, Ohio. It has also a Missionary Seminary in Egypt. Its literary institutions are Westminister College, at Monmouth, Ill., Muskingum College, at New Concord, Ohio, and Knoxville College, Cennessee, also a Missionary training school at Osiont, Egypt.

In the Foreign Missionary work the United Presbyterian Church employed in 1877, 21 laborers in Syria, 103 in Egypt, 181 in India and 3 in China. It has also successfully established itself on the Pacific coast, having flourishing congregations both in Oregon and California.
